Business Return, Refund & Cancellation Policy

Chapter 1 – Introduction

1.1 Purpose

This Business Return, Refund & Cancellation Policy ("Policy") establishes the terms and conditions governing the return, replacement, refund, credit, and cancellation of Products and Services purchased through the Business-to-Business ("B2B") Platform operated by Peoples League Of Electronics Private Limited ("Company", "PLE").

This Policy is designed to ensure a transparent, fair, and commercially reasonable process for Business Users while protecting the legitimate interests of the Company, its suppliers, manufacturers, distributors, logistics partners, and other stakeholders.

The Policy seeks to:

- establish standardized procedures for product returns;
- define eligibility criteria for refunds and cancellations;
- outline the Return Merchandise Authorization ("RMA") process;
- clarify the responsibilities of the Company and Business Users;
- reduce operational disputes;
- protect against fraud and misuse;
- facilitate efficient reverse logistics; and
- ensure compliance with applicable laws and contractual obligations.

1.2 Scope

This Policy applies to all Business Users registered on the Company's B2B Platform and governs transactions involving:

- Products purchased through the Platform;
- procurement orders;
- Purchase Orders;
- quotations accepted by the Company;
- Corporate Wallet purchases;
- Employee Wallet purchases made on behalf of a Business User;
- business credit purchases;
- invoices issued by the Company;
- marketplace transactions where expressly applicable; and
- other commercial transactions specifically designated by the Company.

This Policy applies regardless of whether Products are supplied:

- directly by the Company;
- through authorized distributors;
- through manufacturers;
- through approved suppliers;
- through marketplace sellers authorized by the Company; or
- through other approved fulfillment partners.

1.3 Applicability

This Policy applies only to Business-to-Business (B2B) transactions.

It does not apply to:

- retail consumer purchases governed by the Company's Consumer Return, Refund & Cancellation Policy;

- employee purchases made solely for personal consumption outside the Business Account;
- employment-related reimbursements;
- internal corporate procurement policies of Business Users; or
- transactions expressly governed by separate written commercial agreements.

Where a separate executed commercial agreement provides different return or refund terms, such agreement shall prevail to the extent of any inconsistency.

1.4 Definitions

For the purposes of this Policy:

Business User means any legally registered business entity approved to use the Company's B2B Platform.

Company means Peoples League Of Electronics Private Limited.

Product means any tangible good, equipment, hardware, accessory, component, software license, subscription, or other item made available through the Platform.

Service means any installation, support, consulting, maintenance, logistics, subscription, software, or related service offered by or through the Company.

Purchase Order (PO) means a confirmed order accepted by the Company.

Return Merchandise Authorization (RMA) means the authorization issued by the Company permitting the return of eligible Products.

Refund means repayment of amounts approved under this Policy.

Replacement means the substitution of an eligible Product with another Product approved by the Company or the applicable supplier.

Credit Note means a commercial document issued to offset future purchases where permitted.

Capitalized terms not defined in this Policy shall have the meanings assigned to them in the Business User Agreement or Business Terms & Conditions.

1.5 Relationship with Other Agreements

This Policy shall be read together with the following documents, as applicable:

- Business User Agreement;
- Business Terms & Conditions;
- Privacy Policy;
- Schedule A – Payment Terms;
- Schedule B – Credit Policy;
- Schedule C – Logistics & Delivery Standards;
- Schedule D – Product Acceptance Procedure;
- Schedule E – Return Merchandise Authorization (RMA) Process;
- Schedule F – Warranty Matrix;
- Schedule G – Data Processing Requirements;
- Schedule H – Compliance Requirements;
- Schedule I – Seller & Partner Obligations;
- Schedule J – Corporate Wallet & Fund Management Policy (where applicable); and
- any executed commercial agreement between the Parties.

In the event of any inconsistency, the order of precedence specified in the Business User Agreement shall apply.

1.6 Commercial Nature of Transactions

Business Users acknowledge that transactions conducted through the Platform are commercial in nature and are intended for business, industrial, institutional, governmental, educational, or professional purposes.

Accordingly:

- return rights may differ from consumer transactions;
- statutory consumer protections applicable to retail consumers may not apply;
- commercial procurement practices shall govern where permitted by applicable law; and

- Business Users are expected to perform reasonable due diligence before placing Purchase Orders.

1.7 Policy Updates

The Company reserves the right to amend, revise, suspend, or replace this Policy where reasonably necessary for:

- legal compliance;
- regulatory changes;
- operational improvements;
- supplier requirements;
- technological developments;
- fraud prevention;
- security enhancements; or
- legitimate business purposes.

Material changes shall be communicated through the Platform, electronic communication, or other reasonable means.

Continued use of the Platform following the effective date of such amendments constitutes acceptance of the updated Policy, except where applicable law requires express consent.

1.8 Interpretation

Unless the context otherwise requires:

- headings are provided for convenience only and shall not affect interpretation;
- references to the singular include the plural and vice versa;
- references to statutes include amendments and successor legislation;
- the words "including," "include," and similar expressions shall mean "including without limitation";
- references to "days" mean calendar days unless expressly stated otherwise; and

- references to electronic records include records recognized under applicable law.

1.9 Good Faith

The Company and Business Users shall implement and administer this Policy honestly, fairly, reasonably, and in good faith.

The Parties shall cooperate in resolving return, refund, replacement, and cancellation requests efficiently while balancing commercial practicality, contractual obligations, and the legitimate interests of all stakeholders.

1.10 Compliance with Applicable Law

This Policy shall be interpreted and enforced in accordance with:

- the Indian Contract Act, 1872;
- the Sale of Goods Act, 1930, where applicable;
- the Companies Act, 2013;
- the Information Technology Act, 2000;
- the Digital Personal Data Protection Act, 2023, where applicable;
- applicable Goods and Services Tax (GST) laws;
- other applicable commercial, tax, and regulatory laws of India; and
- any mandatory legal requirements applicable to the transaction.

Where any provision of this Policy conflicts with mandatory legal requirements, such legal requirements shall prevail to the extent of the inconsistency.

Chapter 2 – Eligibility for Returns

2.1 Purpose

This Chapter establishes the eligibility criteria, conditions, and limitations applicable to the return of Products purchased through the Business-to-Business ("B2B") Platform operated by Peoples League Of Electronics Private Limited ("Company", "PLE").

The purpose of this Chapter is to ensure that return requests are processed consistently, fairly, and in accordance with commercially accepted procurement practices, while protecting the interests of the Company, its suppliers, manufacturers, distributors, logistics partners, marketplace sellers, and Business Users.

2.2 Eligible Business Users

Only Business Users holding an active and verified Business Account may submit return requests under this Policy.

The Company may require verification of:

- Business Account ownership;
 - Purchase Order details;
 - invoice information;
 - delivery records;
 - product serial numbers;
 - authorized representative details; and
 - any additional documentation reasonably required to process the request.

2.3 Eligible Products

Subject to this Policy, Products may be eligible for return where they are:

- delivered in a damaged condition;
- materially defective upon delivery;
- Dead on Arrival ("DOA"), where applicable;
- materially different from the accepted Purchase Order;
- delivered in incorrect quantities;
- supplied with incorrect specifications;
- supplied due to fulfillment errors attributable to the Company or its authorized fulfillment partner;
- covered by an applicable warranty or executed commercial agreement; or
- otherwise approved by the Company under exceptional commercial circumstances.

Eligibility for return shall remain subject to successful inspection and approval by the Company or the applicable supplier.

2.4 Return Window

Unless otherwise specified in:

- an executed commercial agreement;
- the applicable Purchase Order;
- the applicable warranty terms;
- a manufacturer's return policy; or
- applicable law,

Business Users shall submit a return request within the inspection or acceptance period specified in Schedule D – Product Acceptance Procedure.

Warranty-related returns shall be governed by the applicable warranty terms and Schedule F – Warranty Matrix.

Requests submitted after the applicable period may be rejected unless otherwise required by applicable law or expressly approved by the Company.

2.5 Conditions for Return

A Product shall generally be eligible for return only where:

- it has not been subjected to misuse, abuse, neglect, unauthorized repair, or improper installation;
- it remains substantially in the condition in which it was delivered, except to the extent necessary for reasonable inspection or testing;
- all original accessories, documentation, manuals, certificates, security labels, and packaging are included where reasonably available;
- product identification labels and serial numbers remain intact and legible;
- the Product has not been materially altered or modified without prior written authorization; and

- the return complies with this Policy and any applicable RMA instructions.

The Company reserves the right to reject any return that does not satisfy these conditions.

2.6 Inspection Requirement

All returned Products shall be subject to inspection by:

- the Company;
- the manufacturer;
- the authorized distributor;
- the authorized supplier;
- the marketplace seller, where applicable; or
- an authorized technical service provider.

Return approval, replacement, repair, refund, or issuance of a Credit Note shall remain subject to the outcome of such inspection.

Submission of a return request or issuance of an RMA does not constitute acceptance of liability or approval of the requested remedy.

2.7 Partial Returns

Where a Purchase Order includes multiple Products, the Company may permit the return of only the affected Products.

Acceptance of a partial return shall not automatically entitle the Business User to return the remaining Products unless those Products independently satisfy the requirements of this Policy.

2.8 Bulk and Commercial Orders

Bulk procurement orders, project-based procurements, institutional purchases, government contracts, and enterprise procurement transactions may be subject to:

- separate contractual terms;
- supplier-specific return conditions;

- manufacturer approval requirements;
- inspection protocols;
- acceptance certificates; or
- project completion milestones.

Where such requirements conflict with this Policy, the applicable executed commercial agreement or Purchase Order shall prevail.

2.9 Products Purchased Through Marketplace Sellers

Where Products are supplied by an approved marketplace seller through the Platform:

- return eligibility may additionally be governed by the seller's approved return policy;
- the Company may coordinate the return process on behalf of the seller;
- technical inspection may be conducted by the seller or manufacturer; and
- refund or replacement decisions may require confirmation from the seller, subject to this Policy and applicable law.

The Company shall use commercially reasonable efforts to facilitate communication between the Business User and the marketplace seller.

2.10 Proof of Purchase

To process a return request, the Business User shall provide, where applicable:

- the Purchase Order number;
- invoice number;
- delivery confirmation;
- Product serial number;
- photographs or videos of the Product and packaging, where reasonably requested;
- details of the defect or issue;
- inspection reports, where applicable; and
- any other supporting documentation reasonably required by the Company.

Failure to provide sufficient documentation may delay or result in the rejection of the return request.

2.11 Reservation of Rights

The Company reserves the right to:

- verify all return requests;
- conduct technical inspections;
- request additional documentation;
- reject fraudulent or abusive claims;
- deny returns that fail to satisfy this Policy;
- require compliance with the applicable RMA procedure; and
- exercise any other rights available under this Agreement or applicable law.

The exercise of these rights shall not relieve the Company of any obligations imposed by applicable law.

2.12 Good Faith

The Company and the Business User shall act honestly, reasonably, and in good faith when submitting, reviewing, investigating, and resolving return requests.

The Parties shall cooperate by providing accurate information, timely documentation, and reasonable assistance to facilitate the efficient resolution of eligible return requests.

2.13 Compliance with Applicable Law

This Chapter shall be interpreted in accordance with:

- the Indian Contract Act, 1872;
- the Sale of Goods Act, 1930, where applicable;
- the Companies Act, 2013;
- the Information Technology Act, 2000;

- the Digital Personal Data Protection Act, 2023, where applicable;
- applicable Goods and Services Tax (GST) laws; and
- all other applicable commercial and regulatory laws of India.

Where any provision of this Chapter conflicts with mandatory legal requirements, such legal requirements shall prevail to the extent of the inconsistency.

Chapter 3 – Return Merchandise Authorization (RMA)

3.1 Purpose

This Chapter establishes the mandatory Return Merchandise Authorization ("RMA") process governing the return of eligible Products purchased through the Business-to-Business ("B2B") Platform operated by Peoples League Of Electronics Private Limited ("Company", "PLE").

The RMA process is intended to:

- ensure efficient handling of return requests;
- facilitate technical assessment and inspection;
- maintain traceability of returned Products;
- protect the interests of Business Users, suppliers, manufacturers, distributors, and logistics partners;
- minimize operational disruption; and
- prevent fraudulent, duplicate, or unauthorized returns.

Except where prohibited by applicable law or expressly agreed otherwise in writing, no Product shall be returned without a valid RMA issued by the Company.

3.2 Mandatory RMA Requirement

Business Users shall obtain an approved RMA before returning any eligible Product.

Returns submitted without a valid RMA may be:

- refused upon delivery;
- returned to the sender at the sender's expense;
- held pending verification;

- subject to additional inspection charges where applicable; or
- otherwise processed in accordance with this Policy and applicable law.

Issuance of an RMA does not constitute acceptance of liability, approval of a refund, or confirmation that the returned Product satisfies the eligibility requirements of this Policy.

3.3 Submission of RMA Request

An RMA request shall be submitted through one or more of the Company's approved communication channels, including:

- the Business User dashboard;
- the Company's B2B Platform;
- designated customer support channels;
- procurement support;
- authorized account managers; or
- any other communication channel designated by the Company.

The Business User shall submit the request within the applicable return, inspection, or warranty period.

3.4 Required Information

An RMA request shall include, where applicable:

- Business Account details;
- Purchase Order number;
- invoice number;
- Product name;
- Product model;
- Product serial number;
- quantity involved;
- delivery date;

- description of the issue;
- photographs or videos demonstrating the reported condition;
- installation details, where applicable;
- diagnostic reports, where applicable;
- warranty information, where applicable; and
- any additional documentation reasonably requested by the Company.

Incomplete requests may delay processing until the required information has been provided.

3.5 Initial Technical Assessment

Upon receipt of an RMA request, the Company or its authorized representative may conduct a preliminary assessment to determine:

- whether the Product appears eligible for return;
- whether remote troubleshooting may resolve the issue;
- whether additional technical information is required;
- whether manufacturer support should be engaged;
- whether on-site inspection is appropriate; or
- whether the request should proceed to formal RMA approval.

The Company may request additional testing or diagnostic information before making a determination.

3.6 RMA Approval or Rejection

Following review of the submitted information, the Company may:

- approve the RMA request;
- approve the request subject to specific conditions;
- request additional information;
- refer the matter to the manufacturer or supplier;

- recommend warranty service instead of return;
- recommend repair instead of replacement; or
- reject the request where the Product is not eligible under this Policy.

The Company shall provide commercially reasonable reasons for rejection where appropriate.

3.7 Issuance of RMA Number

Where an RMA request is approved, the Company shall issue a unique RMA reference number.

The RMA shall specify, where applicable:

- Products authorized for return;
- approved quantities;
- designated return location;
- packaging instructions;
- shipping instructions;
- validity period;
- documentation requirements; and
- any additional return conditions.

The Business User shall clearly reference the assigned RMA number on all related communications, shipping documentation, and package labels.

3.8 Validity of RMA

Unless otherwise specified by the Company, an approved RMA shall remain valid for the period stated in the RMA authorization.

If the Product is not shipped within the validity period:

- the RMA may expire automatically;
- a new RMA request may be required; and

- eligibility for return shall be reassessed based on the circumstances at that time.

3.9 Packaging Requirements

The Business User shall package returned Products in a manner reasonably sufficient to protect them during transportation.

Where applicable, returned Products shall include:

- original packaging;
- accessories;
- manuals;
- cables;
- warranty documentation;
- licenses;
- security seals, where reasonably available; and
- any components specifically identified in the RMA.

Products inadequately packaged may be rejected or may affect eligibility for refund, replacement, or repair where damage occurs during transit due to improper packaging.

3.10 Shipping Instructions

Returned Products shall be shipped only to the location specified in the approved RMA.

The Company may specify:

- approved logistics partners;
- shipping methods;
- insurance requirements;
- documentation requirements;
- customs documentation for cross-border returns;
- freight terms; and
- delivery instructions.

Failure to follow the prescribed shipping instructions may delay or invalidate the RMA process.

3.11 Receipt and Inspection

Upon receipt of the returned Product, the Company, manufacturer, supplier, distributor, marketplace seller, or authorized service provider may conduct:

- physical inspection;
- serial number verification;
- functional testing;
- warranty verification;
- tamper inspection;
- diagnostic testing; and
- any other reasonable technical evaluation necessary to determine the appropriate resolution.

The outcome of such inspection shall determine whether the Product qualifies for repair, replacement, refund, Credit Note, or rejection under this Policy.

3.12 Closure of RMA

An RMA shall be deemed closed upon the earliest of:

- completion of repair;
- dispatch of a replacement Product;
- issuance of a refund;
- issuance of a Credit Note;
- rejection of the return following inspection;
- return of the Product to the Business User; or
- withdrawal of the RMA request by the Business User.

The Company shall retain appropriate records of completed RMA cases in accordance with its record retention policies and applicable law.

3.13 Fraud Prevention

The Company reserves the right to reject or investigate any RMA request involving:

- altered or missing serial numbers;
- counterfeit Products;
- unauthorized modifications;
- repeated abusive return patterns;
- false or misleading information;
- duplicate claims;
- intentional damage;
- substitution of Products; or
- any other suspected fraudulent activity.

Where fraud is reasonably suspected, the Company may suspend processing, conduct further investigations, notify relevant authorities where legally required, and exercise any rights available under this Agreement or applicable law.

3.14 Good Faith

The Company and the Business User shall participate in the RMA process honestly, accurately, and in good faith.

Each Party shall provide timely information, cooperate in technical assessments, and take reasonable steps to facilitate the efficient resolution of eligible return requests while safeguarding the integrity of the RMA process.

3.15 Compliance with Applicable Law

This Chapter shall be interpreted in accordance with:

- the Indian Contract Act, 1872;

- the Sale of Goods Act, 1930, where applicable;
- the Companies Act, 2013;
- the Information Technology Act, 2000;
- the Digital Personal Data Protection Act, 2023, where applicable;
- applicable Goods and Services Tax (GST) laws; and
- all other applicable commercial and regulatory laws of India.

Where any provision of this Chapter conflicts with mandatory legal requirements, such legal requirements shall prevail to the extent of the inconsistency.

Chapter 4 – Product Inspection & Acceptance

4.1 Purpose

This Chapter establishes the procedures governing the inspection, verification, acceptance, rejection, and reporting of Products delivered through the Business-to-Business ("B2B") Platform operated by Peoples League Of Electronics Private Limited ("Company", "PLE").

The objective of this Chapter is to ensure that Products supplied under Purchase Orders are promptly inspected, verified against contractual requirements, and accepted or rejected in accordance with commercially reasonable procurement practices.

This Chapter shall be read together with Schedule D – Product Acceptance Procedure, Schedule E – Return Merchandise Authorization (RMA) Process, and the applicable Purchase Order.

4.2 Inspection upon Delivery

Immediately upon delivery, the Business User shall conduct a reasonable inspection of the delivered Products to verify:

- package integrity;
- quantity delivered;
- Product model and specifications;
- serial numbers, where applicable;
- visible physical damage;

- accessories and included components;
- accompanying documentation;
- compliance with the Purchase Order; and
- any apparent defects.

Inspection shall be performed before the Products are installed, deployed, modified, or placed into commercial use, where reasonably practicable.

4.3 Inspection Period

The Business User shall complete its inspection within the inspection period specified in:

- the applicable Purchase Order;
- the executed commercial agreement;
- Schedule D – Product Acceptance Procedure; or
- another period expressly agreed by the Parties.

Where no inspection period is specified, inspection shall be completed within a commercially reasonable time after delivery, taking into account the nature, complexity, and intended use of the Products.

4.4 Acceptance Criteria

A Product shall generally be deemed acceptable where it:

- conforms to the accepted Purchase Order;
- matches the agreed specifications;
- is free from visible shipping damage;
- includes all required accessories and documentation;
- bears accurate identification and serial numbers where applicable;
- successfully passes any agreed inspection or functional testing; and
- complies with the applicable contractual requirements.

Acceptance of a Product does not waive any warranty rights that arise after acceptance.

4.5 Inspection for Damage

If the Business User identifies:

- damaged packaging;
- physical damage;
- water exposure;
- broken components;
- missing items;
- evidence of tampering; or
- other visible defects,

the Business User shall:

- document the condition with photographs or videos where reasonably possible;
- retain all original packaging until instructed otherwise;
- notify the Company promptly;
- avoid unnecessary use of the Product where continued operation may worsen the condition; and
- cooperate with any inspection requested by the Company or the applicable supplier.

4.6 Incorrect or Non-Conforming Deliveries

Where the delivered Products:

- differ from the accepted Purchase Order;
- contain incorrect models;
- contain incorrect specifications;
- contain incorrect quantities;
- include unauthorized substitutions; or
- otherwise fail to conform to the contractual requirements,

the Business User shall promptly notify the Company and provide reasonable supporting documentation.

The Company may, subject to verification:

- replace the affected Products;
 - arrange collection of incorrectly supplied Products;
 - issue revised documentation;
 - issue a Credit Note;
 - process a refund where applicable; or
 - provide another commercially reasonable remedy.

4.7 Functional Testing

Where Products require installation, commissioning, activation, or configuration before functionality can reasonably be assessed, the Business User may conduct functional testing in accordance with:

- manufacturer instructions;
- Company guidance;
- applicable technical documentation; or
- the executed commercial agreement.

Reasonable testing performed solely to verify conformity shall not, by itself, disqualify an otherwise eligible return under this Policy.

4.8 Acceptance by Use

Unless otherwise agreed in writing or prohibited by applicable law, a Product may be deemed accepted where the Business User:

- confirms acceptance in writing;
- installs or deploys the Product into operational use beyond reasonable inspection or testing;
- resells the Product;

- materially modifies the Product;
- incorporates the Product into another system;
- fails to report any non-conformity within the applicable inspection period; or
- otherwise demonstrates acceptance through its conduct.

Acceptance shall not affect any rights arising under an applicable warranty for latent defects.

4.9 Rejection Procedure

Where a Product fails inspection, the Business User shall:

- notify the Company promptly;
- submit an RMA request where required;
- provide supporting documentation;
- preserve the Product in substantially the condition in which it was delivered, except for reasonable inspection or testing; and
- comply with any instructions provided by the Company regarding storage, packaging, or return.

The Company may conduct further investigation before determining the appropriate remedy.

4.10 Technical Evaluation

The Company, manufacturer, supplier, distributor, marketplace seller, or authorized service provider may perform technical evaluation to determine:

- the reported defect;
- the cause of failure;
- whether the Product conforms to specifications;
- whether damage occurred during transit;
- whether misuse or unauthorized modification occurred;

- warranty eligibility; and
- the appropriate corrective action.

The findings of such evaluation shall form the basis for any repair, replacement, refund, Credit Note, or rejection, subject to applicable law.

4.11 Resolution Following Inspection

Following inspection and evaluation, the Company may, where appropriate:

- accept the return;
- repair the Product;
- replace the Product;
- provide an equivalent Product;
- issue a Credit Note;
- issue a refund in accordance with this Policy;
- return the Product to the Business User with an explanation of the findings; or
- take any other commercially reasonable action permitted under this Agreement.

The selected remedy shall be determined based on the nature of the issue, applicable warranty terms, supplier obligations, and the circumstances of the transaction.

4.12 Inspection Records

The Company may maintain records relating to inspections, including:

- inspection reports;
- photographs;
- diagnostic results;
- serial number verification;
- technical findings;
- correspondence;
- delivery records; and

- any other information reasonably necessary for quality assurance, dispute resolution, regulatory compliance, or legal purposes.

Such records shall be retained in accordance with the Company's record retention policies and applicable law.

4.13 Good Faith

The Company and the Business User shall conduct inspections, evaluations, and acceptance procedures honestly, fairly, and in good faith.

Each Party shall provide accurate information, preserve relevant evidence, and cooperate reasonably to facilitate the prompt and equitable resolution of inspection-related issues.

4.14 Compliance with Applicable Law

This Chapter shall be interpreted in accordance with:

- the Indian Contract Act, 1872;
- the Sale of Goods Act, 1930, where applicable;
- the Companies Act, 2013;
- the Information Technology Act, 2000;
- the Digital Personal Data Protection Act, 2023, where applicable;
- applicable Goods and Services Tax (GST) laws; and
- all other applicable commercial and regulatory laws of India.

Where any provision of this Chapter conflicts with mandatory legal requirements, such legal requirements shall prevail to the extent of the inconsistency.

Chapter 5 – Non-Returnable Products

5.1 Purpose

This Chapter identifies the categories of Products that are generally ineligible for return, refund, replacement, or cancellation under this Business Return, Refund & Cancellation Policy.

The purpose of this Chapter is to provide clarity regarding Products that, due to their nature, customization, licensing, commercial value, regulatory restrictions, hygiene considerations, or supplier limitations, cannot ordinarily be returned after acceptance or delivery.

Nothing in this Chapter shall limit any rights that cannot lawfully be excluded under applicable law or any obligations expressly assumed by the Company under a separate written agreement.

5.2 General Rule

Unless otherwise expressly approved in writing by the Company or required by applicable law, Products falling within the categories specified in this Chapter shall not be eligible for:

- return;
- refund;
- replacement;
- exchange;
- cancellation after acceptance;
- Credit Notes; or
- any other commercial remedy based solely on buyer preference or change in business requirements.

5.3 Customized and Special Procurement Products

The following Products are generally non-returnable:

- custom-built systems;
- configured hardware;
- build-to-order Products;
- specially imported Products;
- Products manufactured specifically for the Business User;
- customized branding;

- engraved or serialized Products prepared specifically for the Business User;
- project-specific procurements; and
- any Product procured exclusively based upon the Business User's specifications.

Returns may only be accepted where:

- the Product contains a verified manufacturing defect;
- the Company supplied an incorrect Product;
- the Product materially differs from the agreed specifications; or
- applicable law requires otherwise.

5.4 Software and Digital Products

Unless otherwise provided by applicable law or the applicable license agreement, the following are non-returnable once delivered, activated, downloaded, registered, or accessed:

- software licenses;
- activation keys;
- digital subscriptions;
- cloud services;
- downloadable software;
- firmware licenses;
- SaaS subscriptions;
- electronic certificates;
- digital documentation;
- API subscriptions; and
- other electronically delivered Products or Services.

Where activation has not occurred and cancellation is commercially feasible, the Company may, at its sole discretion, permit cancellation subject to supplier approval.

5.5 Opened Consumables

Unless defective at the time of delivery, the following are generally non-returnable once opened, installed, or used:

- batteries;
 - printer consumables;
 - ink cartridges;
 - toner cartridges;
 - storage media;
 - cleaning materials;
 - maintenance kits;
 - cables sold for single-use applications;
 - adhesives; and
 - other consumable Products designated by the Company or manufacturer.

5.6 Hygiene and Safety Products

Where applicable, Products intended for hygienic, medical, safety, or personal protective use shall not be eligible for return after their sealed packaging has been opened, except where:

- the Product is defective;
 - the incorrect Product was supplied;
 - applicable law requires otherwise; or
 - the Company expressly approves the return.

5.7 Products Damaged After Delivery

The Company shall not accept returns where damage results from:

- improper installation;
- misuse;

- abuse;
- negligence;
- unauthorized repair;
- improper maintenance;
- unauthorized modification;
- accident;
- environmental exposure;
- power fluctuations;
- natural disasters;
- improper storage; or
- failure to follow manufacturer instructions.

Such Products may remain eligible for paid repair services where available.

5.8 Products with Missing Identification

Products may be rejected where:

- serial numbers have been removed;
- warranty seals have been broken without authorization;
- security labels have been altered;
- Product identification has been intentionally obscured;
- manufacturer labels are missing; or
- Product authenticity cannot reasonably be verified.

This provision shall not apply where the alteration was caused by the Company, manufacturer, or an authorized service provider.

5.9 Clearance, Liquidation, and End-of-Life Products

Unless otherwise stated in writing, Products sold as:

- clearance stock;
- liquidation inventory;
- end-of-life Products;
- discontinued Products;
- refurbished Products sold on an "as-is" basis; or
- specially discounted inventory, are generally non-returnable except where:

- the Product is Dead on Arrival (DOA);
- the Product contains a verified manufacturing defect;
- the Company supplied an incorrect Product; or
- applicable law requires otherwise.

5.10 Third-Party Marketplace Products

Products supplied by third-party marketplace sellers may be subject to additional non-returnable conditions imposed by:

- manufacturers;
- distributors;
- suppliers; or
- marketplace sellers,

provided such conditions:

- are disclosed before purchase where reasonably practicable;
- do not conflict with mandatory legal requirements; and
- do not override any express contractual obligations assumed by the Company.

5.11 Services Already Performed

The following Services are generally non-refundable after commencement or completion:

- installation services;
- on-site support;
- commissioning;
- consulting;
- professional services;
- implementation services;
- technical inspections;
- training services;
- configuration services; and
- other Services that have already been substantially performed.

Where Services are not performed in accordance with contractual obligations, the Company may provide commercially reasonable corrective measures.

5.12 Exceptional Commercial Approval

Notwithstanding this Chapter, the Company may, at its sole discretion and without creating any precedent, approve a return, replacement, Credit Note, or refund where exceptional commercial circumstances justify such action.

Such approval shall not modify this Policy or establish any continuing obligation to grant similar exceptions in future transactions.

5.13 Good Faith

The Company and the Business User shall interpret and apply the non-returnable provisions of this Chapter honestly, fairly, and in good faith.

The Parties shall cooperate to determine whether a Product genuinely falls within a non-returnable category and whether any contractual, warranty, or statutory exception applies.

5.14 Compliance with Applicable Law

This Chapter shall be interpreted in accordance with:

- the Indian Contract Act, 1872;
- the Sale of Goods Act, 1930, where applicable;
- the Companies Act, 2013;
- the Information Technology Act, 2000;
- the Digital Personal Data Protection Act, 2023, where applicable;
- applicable Goods and Services Tax (GST) laws;
- applicable Intellectual Property laws; and
- all other applicable commercial and regulatory laws of India.

Where any provision of this Chapter conflicts with mandatory legal requirements, such legal requirements shall prevail to the extent of the inconsistency.

Chapter 6 – Refund Policy

6.1 Purpose

This Chapter establishes the terms, conditions, procedures, and limitations governing refunds arising from Business-to-Business ("B2B") transactions conducted through the Platform operated by Peoples League Of Electronics Private Limited ("Company", "PLE").

The purpose of this Chapter is to ensure that refunds are processed fairly, transparently, and in accordance with commercially accepted procurement practices, while protecting the legitimate interests of the Company, Business Users, suppliers, manufacturers, distributors, marketplace sellers, payment service providers, and other stakeholders.

Refunds are not automatic and shall be subject to the eligibility requirements, verification procedures, and approval process set forth in this Policy, the Business User Agreement, the Business Terms & Conditions, and any applicable commercial agreement.

6.2 Refund Eligibility

A refund may be considered where:

- the Product qualifies for return under this Policy;
- the Company is unable to repair or replace an eligible Product within a commercially reasonable period;
- the incorrect Product was supplied and replacement is not commercially feasible;

- the ordered Product becomes permanently unavailable before fulfillment;
- duplicate payment has been successfully verified;
- excess payment has been received due to administrative error;
- the Company cancels the order prior to shipment without providing an acceptable alternative;
- a refund is expressly required under an executed commercial agreement; or
- applicable law requires a refund.

Refund eligibility shall always remain subject to verification, inspection, and approval by the Company.

6.3 Non-Refundable Transactions

Unless otherwise required by applicable law or expressly agreed in writing, refunds shall generally not be available for:

- Products classified as non-returnable under this Policy;
 - completed installation or implementation services;
 - professional consulting services already rendered;
 - software licenses that have been activated or delivered electronically;
 - cloud subscriptions already provisioned;
 - customized or special-order Products;
 - Products damaged due to misuse or unauthorized modification;
 - Products rejected after inspection for non-eligible reasons; or
 - cancellation requests made after Products have been accepted, except as otherwise provided in this Policy.

6.4 Refund Approval Process

All refund requests shall undergo an internal review, which may include:

- verification of the Purchase Order;

- invoice verification;
- payment confirmation;
- inspection of returned Products;
- technical evaluation;
- warranty assessment;
- supplier or manufacturer consultation, where applicable;
- fraud prevention review; and
- approval by the Company's authorized personnel.

Submission of a refund request does not constitute approval of the refund.

The Company reserves the right to request additional information or documentation reasonably necessary to complete its review.

6.5 Refund Methods

Approved refunds may be issued through one or more of the following methods, as determined by the Company or as agreed with the Business User:

- reversal to the original payment method;
- bank transfer to the verified Business User account;
- Credit Note;
- Corporate Wallet credit;
- adjustment against outstanding invoices;
- adjustment against future Purchase Orders; or
- any other commercially agreed settlement method.

The refund method may depend upon:

- the original payment method;
- banking regulations;
- supplier arrangements;
- tax requirements;

- commercial agreements; and
 - applicable law.

6.6 Credit Notes

Instead of a monetary refund, the Company may issue a Credit Note where:

- agreed by the Business User;
- permitted under the applicable Purchase Order;
- provided in an executed commercial agreement;
- commercially appropriate; or
- permitted by applicable tax laws.

Credit Notes:

- may be applied against future eligible purchases;
 - shall not constitute legal tender;
 - shall not accrue interest unless required by law or agreed in writing; and
 - shall remain subject to any validity period stated therein, where legally permissible.

6.7 Corporate Wallet Refunds

Where a purchase was made using the Corporate Wallet, the Company may refund the approved amount to:

- the originating Corporate Wallet;
- the Business User's designated bank account;
- a Credit Note; or
- another approved refund method.

Refunds credited to the Corporate Wallet shall remain subject to the Company's Corporate Wallet policies and applicable law.

6.8 Employee Wallet Refunds

Where a purchase was made using an Employee Wallet, refunds shall be processed in accordance with the source of funds used for the transaction.

Where the purchase utilized:

- Company-allocated funds, the refund may be credited to the Corporate Wallet or otherwise directed by the Business Administrator; or
- employee-funded personal balances, the refund may be returned to the Employee Wallet or another approved payment method, subject to Company policies and applicable law.

The Company reserves the right to verify the source of funds before processing such refunds.

6.9 Refund Processing Time

Following approval, the Company shall use commercially reasonable efforts to process refunds within a reasonable period.

Actual receipt of refunded amounts may depend upon:

- banking systems;
- payment gateway processing;
- financial institution procedures;
- supplier settlements;
- government holidays;
- regulatory requirements; and
- circumstances beyond the Company's reasonable control.

The Company shall not be liable for delays attributable solely to third-party financial institutions or payment processors.

6.10 Taxes

Refunds involving taxes shall be processed in accordance with:

- applicable Goods and Services Tax (GST) laws;

- invoicing requirements;
- credit note regulations;
- tax adjustment procedures; and
- other applicable tax laws.

The Company may deduct or adjust taxes where required by law or regulatory authority.

Business Users remain responsible for their own accounting and tax reporting obligations.

6.11 Partial Refunds

Where only a portion of an order qualifies for refund, the Company may issue a partial refund corresponding to:

- the affected Products;
- approved quantities;
- verified shortages;
- verified defects; or
- other approved adjustments.

Shipping charges, installation fees, taxes, or other service charges may be adjusted separately depending on the circumstances of the transaction.

6.12 Set-Off Rights

To the extent permitted by applicable law and any executed commercial agreement, the Company may set off an approved refund against:

- outstanding invoices;
- overdue payment obligations;
- unpaid service charges;
- authorized deductions; or
- other lawful amounts owed by the Business User to the Company.

The Company shall provide reasonable details of any such adjustment upon request.

6.13 Fraud Prevention

The Company reserves the right to suspend, reject, or investigate any refund request involving:

- suspected fraud;
- duplicate claims;
- forged documentation;
- payment irregularities;
- unauthorized account access;
- altered Products;
- counterfeit Products;
- intentional misuse of this Policy; or
- any activity reasonably believed to violate this Agreement or applicable law.

Where fraud is reasonably suspected, the Company may report the matter to competent authorities where legally required.

6.14 Good Faith

The Company and the Business User shall submit, review, process, and resolve refund requests honestly, fairly, and in good faith.

Each Party shall provide accurate information, cooperate in verification procedures, and avoid conduct intended to improperly obtain or deny refunds.

6.15 Compliance with Applicable Law

This Chapter shall be interpreted in accordance with:

- the Indian Contract Act, 1872;
- the Sale of Goods Act, 1930, where applicable;
- the Companies Act, 2013;

- the Information Technology Act, 2000;
- the Digital Personal Data Protection Act, 2023, where applicable;
- applicable Goods and Services Tax (GST) laws;
- the Reserve Bank of India (RBI) regulations governing payment processing, where applicable; and
- all other applicable commercial and regulatory laws of India.

Where any provision of this Chapter conflicts with mandatory legal requirements, such legal requirements shall prevail to the extent of the inconsistency.

Chapter 7 – Cancellation Policy

7.1 Purpose

This Chapter establishes the terms, conditions, procedures, and limitations governing the cancellation of Purchase Orders, Products, and Services under the Business-to-Business ("B2B") Platform operated by Peoples League Of Electronics Private Limited ("Company", "PLE").

The purpose of this Chapter is to balance the legitimate commercial interests of the Company, Business Users, suppliers, manufacturers, distributors, logistics partners, and marketplace sellers while providing a transparent and commercially reasonable cancellation process.

Cancellation requests shall be subject to this Policy, the Business User Agreement, the Business Terms & Conditions, applicable Purchase Orders, executed commercial agreements, and applicable law.

7.2 Scope

This Chapter applies to the cancellation of:

- Purchase Orders;
- quotations accepted by the Company;
- Products;
- Services;
- subscription services;

- project procurements;
- Corporate Wallet purchases;
- Employee Wallet purchases made on behalf of a Business User; and
- other commercial transactions processed through the Platform.

Cancellation rights may vary depending upon the stage of procurement, fulfillment, shipment, installation, or service delivery.

7.3 Cancellation Before Order Acceptance

A Business User may request cancellation of a Purchase Order before it has been formally accepted or confirmed by the Company.

Where the Company has not yet:

- accepted the Purchase Order;
- allocated inventory;
- initiated procurement;
- scheduled shipment;
- commenced service delivery; or
- incurred material costs,

the Company may approve cancellation without penalty, subject to applicable law and any executed commercial agreement.

7.4 Cancellation After Order Acceptance

Once a Purchase Order has been accepted by the Company, cancellation shall be subject to:

- inventory allocation;
- supplier commitments;
- manufacturer obligations;
- logistics arrangements;

- contractual commitments;
- administrative costs; and
- other commercially reasonable considerations.

The Company may approve, partially approve, or reject a cancellation request based on the circumstances of the transaction.

Approval of cancellation shall remain at the Company's discretion unless otherwise required by applicable law or expressly agreed in writing.

7.5 Cancellation After Shipment

Where Products have already been dispatched or handed over to a logistics provider:

- cancellation may no longer be available;
- the Business User may instead be required to follow the applicable return procedure;
- shipping charges, reverse logistics costs, customs duties, insurance charges, or other reasonable expenses may be deducted from any approved refund where permitted by applicable law; and
- any applicable supplier restocking fees may also apply.

7.6 Cancellation of Services

Where Services have been scheduled but have not yet commenced, the Business User may request cancellation.

Where Services have already commenced, the Company may charge for:

- work already performed;
- resources allocated;
- travel expenses;
- third-party costs;
- procurement expenses;
- licensing costs;

- implementation activities; and
- other reasonable expenses incurred before cancellation.

Completed Services shall generally not be eligible for cancellation or refund unless otherwise required by applicable law or agreed in writing.

7.7 Customized and Special Orders

Cancellation of the following shall generally not be permitted once procurement or manufacturing has commenced:

- customized Products;
- build-to-order Products;
- specially imported Products;
- project-specific procurements;
- configured hardware;
- customized software deployments;
- Products manufactured according to Business User specifications; and
- any Product specifically procured for the Business User.

The Company may approve cancellation only where commercially feasible and subject to recovery of any reasonable costs incurred.

7.8 Subscription Services

Subscription-based Products or Services may be cancelled in accordance with:

- the applicable subscription agreement;
- the applicable Purchase Order;
- the executed commercial agreement;
- the applicable licensing terms; or
- the Company's subscription policies.

Unless otherwise agreed, cancellation shall not automatically entitle the Business User to a prorated refund for Services already provided.

7.9 Company's Right to Cancel

The Company reserves the right to cancel or suspend any Purchase Order or transaction where:

- payment cannot be successfully verified;
- fraud is reasonably suspected;
- pricing errors have occurred;
- inventory becomes unavailable;
- regulatory restrictions apply;
- supplier fulfillment becomes impossible;
- force majeure events prevent performance;
- applicable law prohibits completion of the transaction;
- the Business User materially breaches this Agreement; or
- continuation of the transaction would expose the Company to unreasonable legal or commercial risk.

Where appropriate, the Company shall notify the Business User and provide a commercially reasonable alternative or refund in accordance with this Policy.

7.10 Cancellation Charges

Where permitted by applicable law and disclosed in the applicable Purchase Order or commercial agreement, cancellation may be subject to reasonable charges reflecting:

- procurement costs;
- supplier cancellation fees;
- manufacturer charges;
- logistics expenses;

- warehousing costs;
- administrative expenses;
- customs duties;
- payment processing costs;
- restocking charges; and
- other reasonable costs actually incurred.

The Company shall not impose cancellation charges that are unlawful, excessive, or inconsistent with applicable law.

7.11 Cancellation Procedure

To request cancellation, the Business User shall provide:

- Business Account details;
- Purchase Order number;
- invoice number, where applicable;
- Product or Service details;
- reason for cancellation; and
- any additional information reasonably requested by the Company.

The Company shall review the request and communicate its decision within a commercially reasonable period.

Submission of a cancellation request does not automatically cancel the relevant transaction.

7.12 Effect of Approved Cancellation

Where a cancellation is approved, the Company may:

- cancel the Purchase Order;
- issue a refund in accordance with Chapter 6;
- issue a Credit Note;

- reverse Corporate Wallet transactions;
- reverse Employee Wallet transactions where appropriate;
- adjust outstanding invoices;
- cancel pending deliveries; or
- take any other commercially reasonable action necessary to conclude the transaction.

Any refund shall remain subject to applicable taxes, payment processing requirements, and this Policy.

7.13 Fraud Prevention

The Company reserves the right to reject or investigate cancellation requests involving:

- fraudulent activity;
- repeated abusive cancellations;
- manipulation of pricing;
- misuse of promotional programs;
- unauthorized account access;
- false representations;
- payment irregularities; or
- any conduct reasonably believed to violate this Agreement or applicable law.

Where appropriate, the Company may suspend Business Accounts, report suspected unlawful conduct to competent authorities, or pursue other remedies available under law.

7.14 Good Faith

The Company and the Business User shall submit, review, and process cancellation requests honestly, fairly, and in good faith.

Each Party shall cooperate by providing accurate information and shall avoid conduct intended to improperly obtain cancellation benefits or to unreasonably prevent legitimate cancellations.

7.15 Compliance with Applicable Law

This Chapter shall be interpreted in accordance with:

- the Indian Contract Act, 1872;
- the Sale of Goods Act, 1930, where applicable;
- the Companies Act, 2013;
- the Information Technology Act, 2000;
- the Digital Personal Data Protection Act, 2023, where applicable;
- applicable Goods and Services Tax (GST) laws; and
- all other applicable commercial and regulatory laws of India.

Where any provision of this Chapter conflicts with mandatory legal requirements, such legal requirements shall prevail to the extent of the inconsistency.

Chapter 8 – Warranty Returns

8.1 Purpose

This Chapter establishes the terms and procedures governing warranty-related returns, repairs, replacements, and warranty claims for Products purchased through the Business-to-Business ("B2B") Platform operated by Peoples League Of Electronics Private Limited ("Company", "PLE").

The purpose of this Chapter is to provide a structured and commercially reasonable framework for managing warranty claims while ensuring compliance with manufacturer warranty obligations, supplier agreements, executed commercial contracts, and applicable law.

This Chapter shall be read together with:

- Schedule E – Return Merchandise Authorization (RMA) Process;
- Schedule F – Warranty Matrix;
- the applicable Purchase Order;
- manufacturer warranty documentation; and
- any executed commercial agreement.

8.2 Scope

This Chapter applies to Products covered by:

- manufacturer warranties;
- distributor warranties;
- supplier warranties;
- Company warranties;
- extended warranty programs purchased separately; or
- any other warranty expressly agreed in writing.

Warranty coverage shall be limited to the terms and duration applicable to the specific Product.

8.3 Warranty Eligibility

A Product shall be eligible for warranty service where:

- the applicable warranty period remains valid;
- proof of purchase can be provided;
- the reported issue falls within the applicable warranty coverage;
- the Product has not been excluded under the warranty terms;
- the Product has not been subjected to unauthorized modification or repair; and
- the Business User complies with the RMA process where applicable.

The Company may require inspection before determining warranty eligibility.

8.4 Dead on Arrival (DOA)

Where a Product is reported as Dead on Arrival ("DOA"), the Business User shall notify the Company promptly within the DOA reporting period specified by:

- the manufacturer;
- the supplier;

- the applicable Purchase Order;
- the executed commercial agreement; or
- the Company's published warranty procedures.

A Product confirmed as DOA may, subject to verification, be:

- replaced;
 - repaired;
 - refunded;
 - credited through a Credit Note; or
 - otherwise resolved in accordance with this Policy.

8.5 Warranty Claim Procedure

To submit a warranty claim, the Business User shall provide:

- Business Account details;
- Purchase Order number;
- invoice number;
- Product model;
- serial number;
- warranty information;
- detailed description of the issue;
- photographs or videos where reasonably requested;
- diagnostic reports where applicable; and
- any additional information reasonably requested by the Company.

The Company may require submission of an approved RMA before accepting the Product for warranty evaluation.

8.6 Technical Inspection

Warranty claims may be evaluated by:

- the Company;
- the manufacturer;
- an authorized distributor;
- an authorized supplier;
- an authorized service center; or
- another authorized technical service provider.

Inspection may include:

- functional testing;
- diagnostic analysis;
- verification of reported defects;
- serial number verification;
- firmware inspection;
- tamper verification; and
- any other reasonable technical evaluation.

The inspection findings shall determine the appropriate warranty remedy.

8.7 Warranty Remedies

Where a warranty claim is approved, the Company or the applicable warranty provider may, at its discretion and subject to the applicable warranty terms:

- repair the Product;
- replace the Product with the same model;
- replace the Product with an equivalent or successor model of substantially similar functionality where the original model is unavailable;
- provide replacement parts;
- issue a Credit Note where commercially appropriate;
- issue a refund where required by applicable law or expressly agreed in writing; or

- provide any other commercially reasonable remedy.

The selected remedy shall constitute full satisfaction of the warranty obligation unless otherwise required by applicable law.

8.8 Replacement Products

Replacement Products:

- may be new, refurbished, or remanufactured, provided they meet the applicable quality standards;
- shall perform substantially in accordance with the specifications of the original Product; and
- may carry the remaining balance of the original warranty period or such additional warranty period as specified by the applicable warranty provider.

Replacement Products may differ cosmetically where functionality remains substantially equivalent.

8.9 Warranty Exclusions

Warranty coverage shall not apply where damage or failure results from:

- misuse;
- abuse;
- negligence;
- improper installation;
- unauthorized modification;
- unauthorized repair;
- accidental damage;
- fire;
- flood;
- lightning;

- electrical surges;
 - environmental conditions outside manufacturer specifications;
 - normal wear and tear;
 - failure to perform recommended maintenance;
 - use of incompatible accessories;
 - software or firmware modifications not authorized by the manufacturer; or
 - any circumstance expressly excluded under the applicable warranty.

8.10 Manufacturer Warranty

Where warranty responsibility rests with the manufacturer, the Company may:

- facilitate communication with the manufacturer;
- assist in coordinating warranty claims;
- assist with logistics where commercially reasonable; and
- provide administrative support.

Unless otherwise expressly agreed, the Company shall not assume obligations beyond those undertaken by the manufacturer under the applicable warranty.

8.11 Warranty Service Time

The duration required to complete warranty repairs or replacements may depend upon:

- manufacturer processing times;
- availability of replacement parts;
- inventory availability;
- logistics arrangements;
- customs clearance for imported Products;
- technical complexity;
- regulatory requirements; and

- circumstances beyond the Company's reasonable control.

The Company shall use commercially reasonable efforts to facilitate timely resolution but does not guarantee completion within any specific timeframe unless expressly agreed in writing.

8.12 Shipping and Logistics

Unless otherwise agreed:

- the Business User shall comply with all RMA shipping instructions;
 - shipping responsibilities shall be determined in accordance with the applicable warranty terms, Purchase Order, or executed commercial agreement;
 - transit risk shall be allocated in accordance with the agreed delivery terms; and
 - the Company may require Products to be shipped to an authorized service center rather than the Company's premises.

8.13 Data Responsibility

Business Users remain solely responsible for:

- backing up all data;
- removing confidential information where appropriate;
- disabling security protections where instructed by authorized service personnel; and
- protecting sensitive business information before submitting Products for warranty service.

The Company shall not be responsible for:

- loss of data;
- corruption of software;
- reinstallation of applications;
- restoration of configurations; or
- business interruption resulting from warranty service, unless otherwise expressly agreed in writing or required by applicable law.

8.14 Good Faith

The Company and the Business User shall administer warranty claims honestly, fairly, and in good faith.

Each Party shall provide accurate information, cooperate during technical evaluations, and take reasonable steps to facilitate efficient warranty resolution while respecting the contractual rights and obligations of all parties involved.

8.15 Compliance with Applicable Law

This Chapter shall be interpreted in accordance with:

- the Indian Contract Act, 1872;
- the Sale of Goods Act, 1930, where applicable;
- the Companies Act, 2013;
- the Information Technology Act, 2000;
- the Digital Personal Data Protection Act, 2023, where applicable;
- applicable Goods and Services Tax (GST) laws; and
- all other applicable commercial and regulatory laws of India.

Where any provision of this Chapter conflicts with mandatory legal requirements, such legal requirements shall prevail to the extent of the inconsistency.

Chapter 9 – Logistics & Reverse Pickup

9.1 Purpose

This Chapter establishes the procedures governing reverse logistics, product collection, transportation, packaging, shipment, and related responsibilities for Products approved for return under this Business Return, Refund & Cancellation Policy.

The purpose of this Chapter is to ensure that returned Products are transported safely, efficiently, and securely while minimizing commercial risk to Peoples League Of Electronics Private Limited ("Company", "PLE"), Business Users, suppliers, manufacturers, distributors, logistics providers, and marketplace sellers.

This Chapter shall be read together with:

- Schedule C – Logistics & Delivery Standards;
 - Schedule D – Product Acceptance Procedure;
 - Schedule E – Return Merchandise Authorization (RMA) Process;
 - the applicable Purchase Order; and
 - any executed commercial agreement.

9.2 Scope

This Chapter applies to:

- approved Product returns;
 - warranty returns;
 - Product replacements;
 - reverse logistics;
 - collection requests;
 - rejected deliveries requiring return;
 - repair shipments;
 - replacement shipments; and
 - any other return movement approved by the Company.

9.3 Reverse Pickup Authorization

Reverse pickup shall only be arranged after:

- approval of the return request;
- issuance of a valid Return Merchandise Authorization (RMA), where applicable;
- confirmation of the pickup location;
- verification of the Product details; and
- compliance with the requirements of this Policy.

The Company may reject or postpone reverse pickup where the required information has not been provided.

9.4 Logistics Arrangements

Reverse logistics may be performed by:

- the Company;
- authorized logistics providers;
- manufacturers;
- authorized distributors;
- suppliers;
- marketplace sellers; or
- other logistics partners approved by the Company.

The Company may determine the most appropriate logistics method based upon:

- Product type;
 - Product value;
 - destination;
 - transportation requirements;
 - warranty provider;
 - supplier obligations; and
 - operational considerations.

9.5 Packaging Requirements

Before shipment, the Business User shall package the Product in a manner reasonably sufficient to protect it during transportation.

Where reasonably available, the shipment should include:

- original packaging;
- protective materials;

- accessories;
- cables;
- manuals;
- warranty documents;
- installation media;
- Product labels;
- serial number identification; and
- documentation specified in the approved RMA.

Improper packaging resulting in transit damage may affect eligibility for refund, replacement, or warranty service where such damage materially contributes to the condition of the Product.

9.6 Collection Responsibilities

The Business User shall:

- make the Product available at the agreed pickup location;
- ensure safe access for the logistics provider;
- verify the identity of the pickup personnel where reasonably practicable;
- provide required shipping documentation;
- cooperate during collection; and
- retain shipment acknowledgement records where provided.

Failure to make the Product available at the agreed time may require rescheduling of the pickup.

9.7 Shipping Responsibilities

Unless otherwise agreed in writing or required by applicable law, responsibility for shipping costs shall be determined by:

- the applicable Purchase Order;

- the executed commercial agreement;
- the applicable warranty terms;
- Incoterms® (where incorporated into the transaction); or
- the Company's approved logistics policies.

The Company may, where commercially appropriate:

- arrange prepaid shipping;
- reimburse eligible shipping expenses;
- provide shipping labels; or
- require the Business User to arrange transportation.

9.8 Transit Risk

Risk of loss or damage during reverse transportation shall pass in accordance with:

- the applicable delivery terms;
- the agreed Incoterms® (where applicable);
- the executed commercial agreement;
- the warranty terms; or
- applicable law.

Where no alternative arrangement exists, risk shall generally remain with the Party responsible for arranging transportation until the Product is delivered to the designated receiving location.

9.9 Transit Insurance

For high-value, sensitive, or commercially significant Products, the Company may require transportation insurance.

Insurance requirements may depend upon:

- Product value;
- shipment destination;

- transportation method;
- regulatory requirements;
- customer instructions; or
- supplier requirements.

Unless otherwise agreed, each Party shall remain responsible for obtaining insurance applicable to shipments under its control.

9.10 Failed Pickup

A pickup may be deemed unsuccessful where:

- the Product is unavailable;
- the pickup location is inaccessible;
- required documentation is unavailable;
- packaging requirements have not been satisfied;
- the Product materially differs from the approved RMA;
- the authorized representative is unavailable; or
- other circumstances prevent collection.

The Company may reschedule the pickup or require the Business User to arrange shipment at its own expense where appropriate.

9.11 International Returns

Where Products are returned across international borders, the Business User shall cooperate in providing documentation reasonably required for:

- customs clearance;
- export documentation;
- import documentation;
- commercial invoices;
- shipping declarations;

- regulatory compliance;
- Product classification; and
- other legal requirements.

The Company shall not be responsible for delays resulting solely from customs authorities or government agencies.

9.12 Receipt Confirmation

Upon receipt of a returned Product, the Company or the authorized receiving party may acknowledge receipt.

Receipt of a returned Product shall not constitute:

- acceptance of the return;
- confirmation of Product condition;
- approval of warranty;
- approval of refund;
- approval of replacement; or
- admission of liability.

All returned Products remain subject to inspection and verification.

9.13 Environmentally Responsible Disposal

Where a Product cannot reasonably be repaired, returned, or reused, the Company may dispose of or recycle the Product in accordance with:

- applicable environmental laws;
- electronic waste (E-Waste) regulations;
- manufacturer requirements;
- regulatory obligations; and
- commercially reasonable environmental practices.

Where required by law or agreed in writing, the Company may obtain the Business User's consent before disposal.

9.14 Record Keeping

The Company may maintain records relating to reverse logistics, including:

- pickup requests;
- shipment tracking;
- delivery confirmations;
- inspection records;
- logistics reports;
- transportation documentation;
- communications; and
- other operational records reasonably necessary for commercial, regulatory, quality assurance, or legal purposes.

Such records shall be retained in accordance with applicable law and the Company's record retention policies.

9.15 Good Faith

The Company and the Business User shall cooperate honestly, promptly, and in good faith throughout the reverse logistics process.

Each Party shall provide accurate information, comply with reasonable logistics instructions, and take appropriate measures to protect Products during transportation and handling.

9.16 Compliance with Applicable Law

This Chapter shall be interpreted in accordance with:

- the Indian Contract Act, 1872;
- the Sale of Goods Act, 1930, where applicable;

- the Companies Act, 2013;
- the Information Technology Act, 2000;
- applicable Goods and Services Tax (GST) laws;
- applicable customs and import/export regulations;
- applicable E-Waste (Management) Rules, as amended; and
- all other applicable commercial and regulatory laws of India.

Where any provision of this Chapter conflicts with mandatory legal requirements, such legal requirements shall prevail to the extent of the inconsistency.

Chapter 10 – Inspection & Resolution

10.1 Purpose

This Chapter establishes the procedures governing the inspection, evaluation, determination, and resolution of Products returned under this Business Return, Refund & Cancellation Policy.

The purpose of this Chapter is to ensure that every returned Product is assessed fairly, consistently, and in accordance with commercially accepted procurement practices before any repair, replacement, refund, Credit Note, or other remedy is approved.

This Chapter shall be read together with:

- Schedule D – Product Acceptance Procedure;
- Schedule E – Return Merchandise Authorization (RMA) Process;
- Schedule F – Warranty Matrix;
- the applicable Purchase Order;
- the Business User Agreement;
- the Business Terms & Conditions; and
- any executed commercial agreement.

10.2 Receipt of Returned Products

Upon receipt of a returned Product, the Company or its authorized representative shall record, where applicable:

- RMA number;
- Purchase Order number;
- invoice details;
- Product description;
- quantity received;
- Product model;
- serial number;
- package condition;
- date and time of receipt;
- logistics information; and
- any apparent physical condition of the Product.

Acknowledgement of receipt shall not constitute acceptance of the return or approval of any remedy.

10.3 Inspection Process

The Company may inspect the returned Product to determine:

- whether the Product matches the approved RMA;
- the reported defect or issue;
- compliance with return eligibility requirements;
- physical condition;
- completeness of accessories;
- serial number authenticity;
- evidence of tampering;
- warranty status; and
- any other commercially relevant factor.

Inspection may be conducted by:

- the Company;
 - the manufacturer;
 - an authorized distributor;
 - an authorized supplier;
 - an authorized service center;
 - a marketplace seller; or
 - another authorized technical representative.

10.4 Technical Evaluation

Where necessary, the Company may perform or arrange:

- diagnostic testing;
- functional testing;
- electrical testing;
- firmware verification;
- software validation;
- hardware analysis;
- component inspection;
- environmental testing; or
- other commercially reasonable technical evaluations.

The purpose of such evaluation is to determine:

- the root cause of the reported issue;
 - whether the Product conforms to specifications;
 - warranty eligibility;
 - repair feasibility; and
 - the appropriate commercial remedy.

10.5 Verification of Return Eligibility

During inspection, the Company shall verify whether:

- the return request was submitted within the applicable return period;
- the Product satisfies the eligibility requirements of this Policy;
- the Product belongs to the Business User;
- proof of purchase is valid;
- Product identification remains intact;
- the Product has not been substituted;
- the reported issue is genuine; and
- any contractual exclusions apply.

Failure to satisfy the eligibility requirements may result in rejection of the return.

10.6 Resolution Options

Following inspection and technical evaluation, the Company may determine one or more of the following resolutions:

- repair of the Product;
- replacement with the same Product;
- replacement with an equivalent Product;
- replacement of defective components;
- refund;
- Credit Note;
- warranty service;
- return of the Product to the Business User without repair;
- partial commercial settlement; or
- another commercially reasonable remedy consistent with this Policy.

The selected resolution shall depend upon:

- inspection findings;
 - warranty coverage;
 - supplier obligations;
 - inventory availability;
 - contractual commitments; and
 - applicable law.

10.7 Repair

Where repair is determined to be the appropriate remedy:

- repairs may be performed by the Company, manufacturer, supplier, or authorized service provider;
- genuine or approved replacement components may be used;
- repaired Products shall undergo reasonable quality verification before return; and
- repaired Products shall remain subject to the applicable warranty terms.

Repair shall not extend the original warranty period unless expressly provided by the applicable warranty provider or required by law.

10.8 Replacement

Where replacement is approved, the Company may provide:

- an identical Product;
- an equivalent Product with substantially similar specifications;
- a successor model where the original Product is no longer available; or
- another mutually agreed alternative.

Replacement Products may be new, refurbished, or remanufactured, provided they meet the applicable quality and performance standards.

10.9 Refund or Credit Note

Where repair or replacement is not commercially reasonable or otherwise appropriate, the Company may:

- process a refund in accordance with Chapter 6;
- issue a Credit Note;
- adjust outstanding invoices;
- credit the Corporate Wallet;
- credit the Employee Wallet, where applicable; or
- provide another commercially agreed financial settlement.

The selected remedy shall remain subject to applicable tax laws, payment processing requirements, and contractual obligations.

10.10 Rejection of Return

A returned Product may be rejected where:

- it does not satisfy return eligibility requirements;
- no defect is identified after reasonable inspection;
- the Product has been damaged through misuse;
- unauthorized modification or repair has occurred;
- serial numbers have been removed or altered;
- fraudulent information has been provided;
- the Product differs materially from the approved RMA; or
- any exclusion under this Policy applies.

Where reasonably practicable, the Company shall provide the Business User with the basis for the rejection.

10.11 Return of Rejected Products

Where a returned Product is rejected:

- the Product may be returned to the Business User;

- shipping costs may be allocated in accordance with the applicable Purchase Order, commercial agreement, or this Policy;
- the Business User shall arrange collection where requested by the Company; and
- storage charges may apply where Products remain uncollected beyond a commercially reasonable period, subject to prior notice.

If the Business User fails to collect or provide shipping instructions within a reasonable period after notice, the Company may dispose of the Product in accordance with applicable law and its internal policies.

10.12 Communication of Resolution

Following completion of inspection, the Company shall communicate the outcome through an appropriate communication channel, which may include:

- the Business User dashboard;
- electronic mail;
- Platform notifications;
- procurement support;
- authorized account managers; or
- other designated communication channels.

The communication may include:

- inspection findings;
- approved resolution;
- estimated completion timelines;
- shipping arrangements;
- refund details, where applicable; and
- any further actions required from the Business User.

10.13 Record Retention

The Company may retain records relating to returned Products, including:

- inspection reports;
- diagnostic findings;
- photographs;
- correspondence;
- serial number records;
- warranty evaluations;
- logistics records;
- repair documentation; and
- financial settlement records.

Such records shall be retained in accordance with applicable law and the Company's record retention policies.

10.14 Good Faith

The Company and the Business User shall conduct all inspections, evaluations, and resolution procedures honestly, objectively, and in good faith.

Each Party shall cooperate by providing accurate information, preserving relevant evidence, and responding promptly to reasonable requests to facilitate a fair and efficient resolution.

10.15 Compliance with Applicable Law

This Chapter shall be interpreted in accordance with:

- the Indian Contract Act, 1872;
- the Sale of Goods Act, 1930, where applicable;
- the Companies Act, 2013;
- the Information Technology Act, 2000;
- the Digital Personal Data Protection Act, 2023, where applicable;

- applicable Goods and Services Tax (GST) laws;
- applicable consumer protection and commercial regulations, where relevant to B2B transactions; and
- all other applicable commercial and regulatory laws of India.

Where any provision of this Chapter conflicts with mandatory legal requirements, such legal requirements shall prevail to the extent of the inconsistency.

Chapter 11 – Fraud Prevention

11.1 Purpose

This Chapter establishes the policies, procedures, and controls implemented by Peoples League Of Electronics Private Limited ("Company", "PLE") to detect, prevent, investigate, and address fraudulent, deceptive, abusive, or unauthorized activities relating to returns, refunds, replacements, cancellations, warranty claims, and reverse logistics under this Business Return, Refund & Cancellation Policy.

The objective of this Chapter is to protect the legitimate interests of the Company, Business Users, suppliers, manufacturers, distributors, marketplace sellers, logistics providers, financial institutions, and other stakeholders while ensuring that genuine claims are processed fairly and efficiently.

11.2 Scope

This Chapter applies to all:

- Business Users;
- Administrators;
- Employees;
- Authorized Users;
- suppliers;
- manufacturers;
- distributors;
- marketplace sellers;
- logistics providers;

- payment service providers; and
- other parties participating in transactions governed by this Policy.

Fraud prevention measures apply throughout the lifecycle of a transaction, including:

- order placement;
- payment processing;
- shipment;
- delivery;
- inspection;
- warranty claims;
- return requests;
- refund requests;
- replacement requests; and
- cancellation requests.

11.3 Fraudulent Activities

The following activities may constitute fraud or abuse under this Policy:

- submitting false return requests;
- making false warranty claims;
- returning counterfeit Products;
- returning substituted Products;
- returning Products different from those supplied;
- altering or removing serial numbers;
- tampering with warranty labels or security seals;
- intentionally damaging Products to obtain warranty benefits;
- submitting forged invoices or Purchase Orders;
- providing false delivery information;

- creating duplicate refund claims;
- abusing promotional programs;
- unauthorized use of Business Accounts;
- unauthorized use of Corporate Wallets or Employee Wallets;
- payment fraud;
- identity misrepresentation;
- collusion with third parties; or
- any conduct intended to obtain an unlawful commercial advantage.

This list is illustrative and not exhaustive.

11.4 Verification Measures

The Company may implement commercially reasonable verification procedures, including:

- Business Account verification;
- identity verification of authorized representatives;
- invoice verification;
- Purchase Order verification;
- payment verification;
- Product serial number verification;
- warranty verification;
- shipment tracking verification;
- technical inspection;
- photographic evidence review;
- diagnostic testing;
- inventory verification;
- transaction history review; and
- other reasonable fraud detection measures.

Business Users shall cooperate with such verification procedures.

11.5 Product Authentication

The Company may verify the authenticity of returned Products by examining:

- serial numbers;
- manufacturer labels;
- warranty seals;
- Product identifiers;
- security markings;
- firmware;
- hardware configuration;
- component authenticity;
- packaging; and
- other identifying characteristics.

Products determined to be counterfeit, substituted, or materially altered may be rejected and retained or otherwise handled in accordance with applicable law.

11.6 Investigation

Where fraud or abuse is reasonably suspected, the Company may:

- suspend processing of the request;
- request additional documentation;
- conduct technical investigations;
- consult manufacturers or suppliers;
- review transaction history;
- verify payment records;
- inspect logistics records;

- engage forensic analysis where appropriate; and
- take any other commercially reasonable investigative measures.

The Company shall conduct investigations objectively and in accordance with applicable law.

11.7 Temporary Suspension

During an investigation, the Company may temporarily suspend:

- refund processing;
- replacement requests;
- warranty claims;
- Business Account privileges;
- Corporate Wallet access;
- Employee Wallet transactions;
- pending Purchase Orders; or
- other Platform services reasonably connected with the investigation.

Such suspension shall not constitute a final determination of wrongdoing.

11.8 Consequences of Fraud

Where fraud, abuse, or material misrepresentation is established, the Company may, to the extent permitted by applicable law:

- reject the return request;
- reject the refund request;
- reject the warranty claim;
- cancel pending transactions;
- recover improperly obtained refunds or credits;
- suspend or terminate the Business Account;
- suspend Corporate Wallet or Employee Wallet access;

- recover investigation costs where contractually permitted;
- refuse future transactions;
- report unlawful conduct to competent authorities where legally required; and
- pursue any other contractual or legal remedies available.

The exercise of one remedy shall not limit the Company's right to pursue additional remedies.

11.9 False or Misleading Information

Business Users shall not knowingly provide:

- false statements;
- inaccurate documentation;
- forged records;
- misleading photographs;
- altered Product information;
- fabricated inspection reports;
- incorrect payment information; or
- any other misleading information in connection with a claim under this Policy.

Submission of inaccurate information, whether intentional or negligent, may delay processing and may result in rejection of the request.

11.10 Cooperation

Business Users shall cooperate with reasonable fraud prevention activities by:

- providing requested documentation;
- preserving returned Products;
- permitting technical inspection where appropriate;
- responding promptly to reasonable inquiries;
- maintaining accurate records; and

- assisting in the verification of disputed transactions.

Failure to reasonably cooperate may affect the Company's ability to process the request.

11.11 Record Retention

The Company may retain records relating to fraud prevention, including:

- transaction records;
- inspection reports;
- communications;
- photographs;
- diagnostic reports;
- payment verification records;
- shipment records;
- audit logs;
- investigation findings; and
- other records reasonably necessary for legal, regulatory, audit, quality assurance, or security purposes.

Such records shall be maintained in accordance with applicable law, the Company's record retention policies, and applicable data protection requirements.

11.12 Confidentiality of Investigations

Fraud investigations shall be treated as confidential to the extent reasonably practicable.

Information relating to an investigation may be disclosed only:

- to the affected Parties;
- authorized Company personnel;
- manufacturers or suppliers where necessary;
- legal advisors;
- auditors;

- regulatory authorities;
 - law enforcement agencies; or
 - other persons where disclosure is required by applicable law or reasonably necessary to protect the Company's legal rights.

11.13 No Waiver

Failure by the Company to investigate, suspend, reject, or take action regarding a particular incident shall not constitute:

- acceptance of the conduct;
 - approval of the transaction;
 - waiver of future enforcement; or
 - limitation of the Company's contractual or legal rights.

11.14 Good Faith

The Company shall administer fraud prevention measures honestly, fairly, objectively, and in good faith.

Business Users shall likewise submit claims honestly, provide truthful information, and cooperate in reasonable investigations. The Company shall avoid unreasonable delays and shall ensure that legitimate claims are not improperly denied solely because an investigation is undertaken.

11.15 Compliance with Applicable Law

This Chapter shall be interpreted in accordance with:

- the Indian Contract Act, 1872;
- the Bharatiya Nyaya Sanhita, 2023, where applicable;
- the Companies Act, 2013;
- the Information Technology Act, 2000;
- the Digital Personal Data Protection Act, 2023;

- applicable Goods and Services Tax (GST) laws;
- applicable anti-fraud and financial crime regulations; and
- all other applicable commercial and regulatory laws of India.

Where any provision of this Chapter conflicts with mandatory legal requirements, such legal requirements shall prevail to the extent of the inconsistency.

Chapter 12 – Limitation of Liability

12.1 Purpose

This Chapter establishes the limitations of liability applicable to returns, refunds, replacements, cancellations, warranty claims, reverse logistics, and related commercial transactions conducted through the Business-to-Business ("B2B") Platform operated by Peoples League Of Electronics Private Limited ("Company", "PLE").

The Parties acknowledge that the allocation of risk contained in this Chapter forms a material and commercially reasonable basis upon which the Company provides its Products and Services.

Nothing in this Chapter shall exclude or limit any liability that cannot lawfully be excluded or limited under applicable law.

12.2 Scope

This Chapter applies to all claims arising out of or relating to:

- return requests;
- refund requests;
- replacement requests;
- cancellation requests;
- warranty claims;
- reverse logistics;
- Product inspections;
- technical evaluations;
- repair services;

- Credit Notes;
 - Corporate Wallet refunds;
 - Employee Wallet refunds; and
 - any matter governed by this Policy.

12.3 Commercial Nature of Transactions

Business Users acknowledge that transactions conducted through the Platform are commercial procurement transactions.

Business Users remain solely responsible for evaluating the suitability of Products for their intended business purposes before placing Purchase Orders.

Except as expressly provided in this Policy or required by applicable law, the Company shall not be responsible for commercial decisions made by the Business User.

12.4 No Guarantee of Business Outcomes

The Company does not warrant or guarantee:

- uninterrupted business operations;
 - business profitability;
 - procurement savings;
 - compatibility with every business environment;
 - uninterrupted availability of replacement inventory;
 - uninterrupted availability of spare parts;
 - future Product availability;
 - continued manufacturer support; or
 - achievement of any particular commercial objective.

12.5 Limitation for Product Returns

The Company's obligations relating to returned Products shall be limited to the remedies expressly provided under this Policy, including:

- inspection;
- repair;
- replacement;
- refund;
- Credit Note; or
- another commercially reasonable remedy approved by the Company.

The Company shall not be obligated to provide multiple remedies for the same Product unless otherwise required by applicable law.

12.6 Third-Party Products and Services

Where Products or Services are supplied by:

- manufacturers;
- distributors;
- suppliers;
- marketplace sellers;
- logistics providers;
- payment service providers; or
- other third parties,

the Company's liability shall be limited to the obligations expressly assumed by the Company under this Policy or any executed commercial agreement.

The Company shall not be responsible for:

- manufacturer delays;
- supplier shortages;
- logistics interruptions;
- customs delays;

- banking delays;
 - payment gateway failures;
 - third-party software failures; or
 - acts or omissions of third parties beyond the Company's reasonable control.

12.7 Exclusion of Indirect Damages

To the maximum extent permitted by applicable law, the Company shall not be liable for any indirect, incidental, consequential, special, exemplary, or punitive damages arising out of or relating to this Policy, including:

- loss of profits;
- loss of anticipated savings;
- loss of business opportunities;
- loss of goodwill;
- business interruption;
- loss of contracts;
- loss of production;
- loss of reputation;
- loss of use;
- loss of data;
- loss of business information; or
- any other indirect or consequential commercial loss.

This exclusion applies whether the claim arises in contract, tort (including negligence), statute, or otherwise.

12.8 Installation and Operational Costs

Unless otherwise expressly agreed in writing, the Company shall not be responsible for:

- installation costs;

- de-installation costs;
- removal costs;
- reinstallation expenses;
- configuration costs;
- implementation costs;
- engineering costs;
- labor expenses;
- contractor fees; or
- operational downtime,

incurred in connection with returned, repaired, or replaced Products.

12.9 Data and Software

Business Users remain solely responsible for:

- backing up data;
- protecting confidential information;
- maintaining software configurations;
- preserving licenses;
- safeguarding credentials; and
- ensuring business continuity.

Except where required by applicable law or expressly agreed in writing, the Company shall not be liable for:

- loss of data;
- corruption of software;
- loss of configuration;
- cybersecurity incidents occurring within the Business User's systems;
- interruption of digital services; or

- restoration of business applications.

12.10 Aggregate Liability

To the maximum extent permitted by applicable law, the aggregate liability of the Company arising out of or relating to this Policy shall not exceed the total amount actually paid by the Business User to the Company for the specific Product or Service giving rise to the claim during the twelve (12) months immediately preceding the event giving rise to such claim.

This limitation shall not apply where prohibited by applicable law.

12.11 Exceptions

Nothing in this Chapter shall exclude or limit liability arising from:

- fraud or fraudulent misrepresentation;
 - willful misconduct;
 - gross negligence, where such limitation is prohibited by law;
 - death or personal injury caused by negligence, where applicable;
 - infringement of Intellectual Property Rights to the extent liability cannot lawfully be excluded;
 - breach of confidentiality obligations where liability cannot legally be limited; or
 - any liability that cannot lawfully be excluded or limited.

12.12 Mitigation of Loss

Each Party shall use commercially reasonable efforts to mitigate any loss or damage arising from an actual or alleged breach of this Policy.

Failure to take reasonable mitigation measures may be considered in determining recoverable damages, to the extent permitted by applicable law.

12.13 Force Majeure

The Company shall not be liable for delays or failures in processing returns, refunds, repairs, replacements, or cancellations where such delay or failure results directly or indirectly from a Force Majeure Event, including:

- natural disasters;
- war;
- terrorism;
- civil unrest;
- strikes;
- governmental actions;
- pandemics;
- supply chain disruptions;
- cyber incidents;
- power failures; or
- other events beyond the Company's reasonable control.

Such events shall be governed by the Force Majeure provisions contained in the Business Terms & Conditions.

12.14 Reservation of Rights

The remedies provided under this Policy are cumulative and do not limit any other contractual or statutory rights available to the Company.

Nothing contained in this Chapter shall be interpreted as limiting the Company's right to:

- reject ineligible claims;
- recover unlawful payments;
- suspend Business Accounts;
- pursue legal remedies;
- enforce contractual rights; or

- comply with lawful directions issued by courts, regulators, or government authorities.

12.15 Good Faith

The Company and the Business User shall exercise their respective rights and obligations under this Chapter honestly, reasonably, and in good faith.

The Parties shall cooperate in mitigating losses, resolving disputes efficiently, and implementing commercially reasonable solutions consistent with this Policy and applicable law.

12.16 Compliance with Applicable Law

This Chapter shall be interpreted in accordance with:

- the Indian Contract Act, 1872;
- the Sale of Goods Act, 1930, where applicable;
- the Companies Act, 2013;
- the Information Technology Act, 2000;
- the Digital Personal Data Protection Act, 2023;
- applicable Goods and Services Tax (GST) laws; and
- all other applicable commercial and regulatory laws of India.

Where any provision of this Chapter conflicts with mandatory legal requirements, such legal requirements shall prevail to the extent of the inconsistency.

Chapter 13 – Dispute Resolution

13.1 Purpose

This Chapter establishes the procedures for the resolution of disputes arising out of or relating to this Business Return, Refund & Cancellation Policy, including disputes concerning returns, refunds, replacements, cancellations, warranty claims, reverse logistics, inspections, payments, and related commercial transactions.

The objective of this Chapter is to encourage the prompt, efficient, confidential, and cost-effective resolution of disputes while preserving the ongoing commercial relationship between Peoples League Of Electronics Private Limited ("Company", "PLE") and its Business Users.

This Chapter shall be read together with the dispute resolution provisions contained in the Business Terms & Conditions and any executed commercial agreement.

13.2 Scope

This Chapter applies to all disputes, claims, controversies, or disagreements arising out of or relating to:

- this Policy;
 - Purchase Orders;
 - Product returns;
 - refund requests;
 - replacement requests;
 - warranty claims;
 - reverse logistics;
 - inspections;
 - technical evaluations;
 - payment adjustments;
 - Credit Notes;
 - Corporate Wallet transactions;
 - Employee Wallet transactions;
 - interpretation of this Policy; and
 - any related contractual relationship between the Parties.

13.3 Good Faith Negotiation

Before initiating formal legal proceedings, the Parties shall use commercially reasonable efforts to resolve any dispute through good faith negotiations.

A Party raising a dispute shall provide written notice containing:

- a description of the dispute;
- relevant supporting documentation;
- the relief sought; and
- the contact details of the authorized representative handling the matter.

The Parties shall cooperate in exchanging relevant information and shall make reasonable efforts to resolve the dispute within thirty (30) Business Days, or such other period as may be mutually agreed in writing.

13.4 Escalation Procedure

Where a dispute cannot be resolved through operational representatives, the matter may be escalated to designated senior representatives of the respective Parties.

Such representatives shall review the dispute in good faith and may:

- request additional information;
- conduct commercial discussions;
- propose settlement terms;
- appoint technical representatives;
- appoint independent experts, where mutually agreed; or
- adopt any other commercially reasonable resolution mechanism.

13.5 Mediation

If the dispute remains unresolved following negotiations, the Parties may mutually agree to submit the dispute to mediation before a mutually acceptable independent mediator.

Participation in mediation shall be voluntary unless otherwise required under an executed commercial agreement or applicable law.

Unless otherwise agreed:

- each Party shall bear its own costs; and

- mediator fees shall be shared equally.

13.6 Arbitration

Where negotiations and any agreed mediation fail to resolve the dispute, the dispute shall be finally resolved by arbitration in accordance with the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996, as amended.

Unless otherwise agreed in writing:

- the arbitration shall be conducted by a sole arbitrator mutually appointed by the Parties;
 - if the Parties fail to agree upon the appointment, the arbitrator shall be appointed in accordance with applicable law;
 - the seat and venue of arbitration shall be Hubballi (Hubli), Karnataka, India;
 - the arbitration proceedings shall be conducted in the English language; and
 - the arbitral award shall be final and binding upon the Parties.

13.7 Interim Relief

Nothing contained in this Chapter shall prevent either Party from seeking:

- interim relief;
- temporary injunctions;
- preservation orders;
- protective measures;
- emergency relief; or
- any other interim remedy,

from a court of competent jurisdiction where such relief is necessary to protect legal rights, confidential information, Intellectual Property Rights, assets, or evidence pending final resolution of the dispute.

13.8 Continued Performance

Unless otherwise directed by a competent court, arbitral tribunal, or mutually agreed in writing, the Parties shall continue to perform their undisputed contractual obligations during the pendency of any dispute.

The existence of a dispute shall not automatically suspend:

- undisputed payment obligations;
 - ongoing Purchase Orders;
 - contractual commitments;
 - confidentiality obligations; or
 - compliance with applicable law.

13.9 Limitation Period

Each Party shall initiate any claim arising under this Policy within the limitation period prescribed by applicable law.

Nothing contained in this Chapter shall extend or shorten any statutory limitation period unless expressly permitted by applicable law.

13.10 Governing Law

This Policy and all disputes arising from or relating to it shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the Republic of India, without regard to conflict of law principles.

13.11 Jurisdiction

Subject to the arbitration provisions contained in this Chapter, the courts having jurisdiction over Hubballi (Hubli), Karnataka, India, shall have exclusive jurisdiction over:

- applications relating to arbitration;
- interim relief;
- enforcement of arbitral awards; and
- any matter that cannot legally be referred to arbitration.

13.12 Costs

Unless otherwise determined by the arbitral tribunal, competent court, or agreed in writing:

- each Party shall bear its own legal, professional, and administrative costs; and
- common arbitration or mediation expenses shall be allocated in accordance with the decision of the tribunal, mediator, or mutual agreement of the Parties.

13.13 Confidentiality

The Parties shall keep confidential:

- settlement discussions;
- mediation proceedings;
- arbitration proceedings;
- evidence produced during dispute resolution;
- expert reports;
- confidential commercial information; and
- any non-public information disclosed during the dispute resolution process, except where disclosure is:

- required by applicable law;
- required by a court or arbitral tribunal;
- required by a regulatory authority;
- necessary to enforce legal rights; or
- made with the prior written consent of the affected Party.

13.14 Survival

The provisions of this Chapter shall survive:

- termination of the Business Account;

- completion of the transaction;
- cancellation of Purchase Orders;
- expiry of warranties;
- termination of commercial agreements; and
- expiration of this Policy, to the extent necessary for the resolution of outstanding disputes and enforcement of accrued rights.

13.15 Good Faith

The Parties shall seek to resolve disputes honestly, fairly, promptly, and in good faith while preserving commercial relationships wherever reasonably practicable.

Nothing in this Chapter shall prevent the Parties from reaching an amicable settlement at any stage of the dispute resolution process.

13.16 Compliance with Applicable Law

This Chapter shall be interpreted in accordance with:

- the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996;
- the Indian Contract Act, 1872;
- the Companies Act, 2013;
- the Information Technology Act, 2000;
- the Digital Personal Data Protection Act, 2023, where applicable;
- applicable Goods and Services Tax (GST) laws; and
- all other applicable commercial and regulatory laws of India.

Where any provision of this Chapter conflicts with mandatory legal requirements, such legal requirements shall prevail to the extent of the inconsistency.

Chapter 14 – Contact Information

14.1 Purpose

This Chapter establishes the official communication channels through which Business Users may contact Peoples League Of Electronics Private Limited ("Company", "PLE") regarding matters governed by this Business Return, Refund & Cancellation Policy.

The purpose of this Chapter is to ensure that return requests, refund requests, warranty claims, cancellations, complaints, technical queries, and other communications are submitted through authorized channels for efficient processing and record management.

14.2 Official Communication Channels

Business Users may communicate with the Company using the official communication channels designated by the Company from time to time, including:

- the Company's B2B Platform;
- the Company website;
- authorized customer support portals;
- registered electronic mail (email);
- authorized telephone support;
- designated account managers;
- support ticket systems; or
- any other communication channel officially approved by the Company.

The Company reserves the right to modify, replace, or discontinue communication channels upon reasonable notice.

14.3 Return and Warranty Requests

All requests relating to:

- Product returns;
- Return Merchandise Authorization (RMA);
- warranty claims;
- Product replacements;
- reverse logistics;

- inspection status;
- repair updates; and
- related operational matters, shall be submitted through the Company's designated return support process.

Business Users shall provide complete and accurate information to facilitate timely processing.

14.4 Required Information

When contacting the Company regarding a return, refund, replacement, or warranty matter, the Business User should provide, where applicable:

- Business Account information;
- registered business name;
- Purchase Order number;
- invoice number;
- Product description;
- Product model;
- serial number;
- RMA number;
- order reference;
- description of the issue;
- supporting photographs or videos, where available;
- relevant correspondence; and
- any additional information reasonably requested by the Company.

Incomplete submissions may delay processing.

14.5 Response Time

The Company shall use commercially reasonable efforts to acknowledge and process communications within reasonable operational timeframes.

Actual response times may vary depending upon:

- the complexity of the request;
- Product category;
- warranty verification;
- supplier involvement;
- logistics requirements;
- regulatory requirements;
- public holidays;
- operational workload; and
- circumstances beyond the Company's reasonable control.

Any estimated response time shall be indicative only and shall not constitute a contractual guarantee.

14.6 Business Hours

Unless otherwise specified, customer support services shall be provided during the Company's published business hours.

Requests submitted outside normal business hours may be processed on the next applicable Business Day.

The Company may provide emergency or priority support for certain commercial customers where separately agreed in writing.

14.7 Electronic Communications

Business Users acknowledge and agree that the Company may communicate electronically regarding matters governed by this Policy, including:

- acknowledgements;
- RMA approvals;

- inspection reports;
- warranty decisions;
- refund confirmations;
- Credit Notes;
- shipment notifications;
- account notifications;
- dispute communications; and
- other operational updates.

Electronic communications transmitted to the registered contact details maintained by the Business User shall be deemed received in accordance with the Business User Agreement, unless proven otherwise.

14.8 Change of Contact Information

Business Users shall promptly update their registered contact information whenever there is any change to:

- authorized representatives;
- registered email addresses;
- telephone numbers;
- business addresses;
- billing addresses;
- shipping addresses; or
- other relevant contact details.

The Company shall not be responsible for delays or failed communications resulting from outdated or inaccurate information provided by the Business User.

14.9 Complaint Handling

Business Users may submit complaints relating to:

- return processing;
- warranty decisions;
- refund processing;
- replacement requests;
- reverse logistics;
- customer support;
- technical services;
- operational issues; or
- alleged non-compliance with this Policy.

The Company shall review complaints in good faith and shall use commercially reasonable efforts to provide an appropriate response.

Submission of a complaint shall not automatically suspend contractual obligations or processing timelines unless otherwise required by applicable law.

14.10 Record of Communications

The Company may maintain records of communications relating to this Policy, including:

- emails;
- support tickets;
- telephone call logs;
- chat communications;
- inspection correspondence;
- logistics communications;
- complaint records;
- dispute-related communications; and
- other operational records.

Such records may be retained for commercial, legal, audit, regulatory, quality assurance, fraud prevention, and security purposes in accordance with applicable law and the Company's record retention policies.

14.11 Language of Communication

Unless otherwise agreed in writing, communications under this Policy shall be conducted in the English language.

The Company may, at its discretion, provide support in additional languages; however, the English version shall prevail in the event of any inconsistency or dispute.

14.12 Modification of Contact Details

The Company may update its official contact details, communication channels, customer support processes, or operational procedures from time to time.

Updated contact information shall become effective upon publication on the Company's Platform, website, or through other official communication channels, unless otherwise specified.

Business Users are responsible for referring to the latest published contact information before submitting requests under this Policy.

14.13 Good Faith

The Company and the Business User shall communicate honestly, professionally, and in good faith.

Both Parties shall use reasonable efforts to provide accurate information, respond promptly to legitimate requests, and cooperate in resolving operational issues efficiently.

14.14 Compliance with Applicable Law

This Chapter shall be interpreted in accordance with:

- the Indian Contract Act, 1872;
- the Companies Act, 2013;

- the Information Technology Act, 2000;
- the Digital Personal Data Protection Act, 2023, where applicable;
- applicable Goods and Services Tax (GST) laws; and
- all other applicable commercial and regulatory laws of India.

Where any provision of this Chapter conflicts with mandatory legal requirements, such legal requirements shall prevail to the extent of the inconsistency.

Execution & Acknowledgement

This Business Return, Refund & Cancellation Policy ("Policy") is issued by Peoples League Of Electronics Private Limited ("Company", "PLE") and shall govern all eligible business-to-Business ("B2B") transactions conducted through the Company's Platform unless otherwise agreed in a separate written agreement.
